SUNDAY, JULY 19TH, 2026 FROM 10 AM - 12 PM EST

PMOS: THE NEW FACE OF PCOS AND ITS HOMEOPATHIC MANAGEMENT

Smita Mahajan is a classical homeopath and founder of HomeoHealing Holistic Clinic in Ontario, Canada. She graduated with a Bachelor of Homeopathic Medicine and Surgery (BHMS) from Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences (RGUHS), Bengaluru, in 2002, and completed her Postgraduate Fellowship in Homeopathic Psychiatry and Counselling (PG FHPC) from Maharashtra University of Health Sciences (MUHS) in 2023.

With over two decades of clinical experience, Smita has a special interest in women's health, hormonal disorders, pediatric conditions, skin diseases, and chronic complex cases. She is passionate about individualized homeopathic prescribing and holistic patient care, integrating mental-emotional and physical aspects of health.

Smita actively contributes to the advancement of homeopathy through professional education, public awareness programs, and clinical teaching. She currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Ontario Homeopathic Medical Association (OHMA).

In this webinar, Smita will explore the homeopathic approach to Polycystic Ovary Syndrome (PCOS), discussing its holistic understanding, individualized treatment strategies, and the role of homeopathy in supporting women's hormonal and reproductive health.
